

Suzanne Howard

As founder, mentor, Pastor, Kingdom Educationist, public speaker and soon to be author, Suzanne Howard has been speaking for over ten years. She delivers a high energy message which tells people how to shake off mediocrity and live up to their greatness. It is a message that Suzanne has learned from her own life and one she is happy helping others apply to their lives.

Born in Hartford, CT., the baby of twelve children. Suzanne's passion to learn and her hunger to realize greatness in herself, helped her to achieve a measure of greatness, that she can now pass on to others. Though, Suzanne can be heard in different venues around this region and beyond several times each month, Suzanne enjoys serving in her local ministry.

Suzanne's achievements include a Certificate in Biblical Studies from Hartford Seminary, and a Certificate in Motivational Speaking, from IAP Career College. Adding to her achievements, in 2014 she received Governor Malloy's "Honor & Recognition Award."

In 2015, Suzanne entered the marketplace of public speaking and formed her own company, CREAT, Inc. (words have the power to create) The company provides motivational tapes, material, workshops and personal/professional development programs aimed at individuals, companies and organizations.

In 2017, Suzanne started the self improvement series "Soul-Detox." A 30 day live broadcast in January 2017,- helping many to understand how our Soul works and how our beliefs dictate our behaviors and our behaviors reveal our beliefs!
